THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was founded February 11, 1867, by the eminent musician, Julius Eichberg, who was graduated from the Conservatory of Brussels with first prizes in violin and composition. After serving several years as professor at the Geneva Conservatory, he came to Boston in 1859 to become director of the Museum Concerts, a post he held until 1866. Mr. Eichberg was a composer of a wide range of chamber music, studies, songs, and operettas. Under his leadership the Conservatory gained a standing among leading music schools, attracting students from all parts of the country.

Following Eichberg's death (1893) the Conservatory came under the direction of Herman P. Chelius, well known organist and composer. The school was first incorporated under the Laws of Massachusetts in 1896. There followed several unsettled years during which time re-organizations were effected in 1905 and 1914.

In 1920, Agide Jacchia, an honor graduate of the Conservatory of Pessaro, was appointed director. Mr. Jacchia came to America in 1907 where he held engagements as musical director of opera companies in the United States, Canada, Central America and Mexico. He was for ten years conductor of the Boston "Pops" concerts (1917-1926). His knowledge and wide experience proved of inestimable value in re-establishing the prestige of the Conservatory. He continued as director until his death in 1932 and was succeeded for a short time by his widow, Mme. Ester Ferrabini Jacchia.

In 1933 the Conservatory came under the leadership of Albert Alphin a former pupil and teacher at the school. He is responsible for reorganizing the school as a non-profit institution, acquiring its present complex of buildings on the Fenway, and the construction of its theater (1949). Innovations under his guidance were the formulation of the music education department (1933), and the establishment of a theater department offering programs in Drama and Dance leading to the baccalaureate degree. This combination was unique in making the school one of the first Conservatories in the country to offer professional training in the three performing arts, Music, Drama, and Dance.

The growth and stability of the Boston Conservatory is a tribute to the many distinguished musicians and teachers that have served on the faculty including such names as Ester Ferrabini Jacchia, Arturo Vita, Wellington Smith, voice; Hans Ebell, George Vieh, Georg Fior, piano; Otto Straub, Karl Weigl, Alan Hovhaness, composition; Carmine Fabrizio, Serge Korgueff, Ottaker Sevcik, violin; and many members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The current staff of over 70 includes artists and teachers who have served the Conservatory with distinction for a number of years.

Graduates of the Boston Conservatory holding positions as performers, and as teachers in schools and colleges throughout the country are living testimonial to the educational standards maintained at the school.

In its second century the Boston Conservatory will remain dedicated to the continuance of its efforts towards the sound preparation of tomorrow's teachers and artists thus contributing to the ever expanding influence of the arts in our society.

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of the Boston Conservatory of Music to provide professional training in the three allied arts—music, drama, and dance—reinforced by a sound general education that will make graduates more resourceful as teachers and performers and more responsible as citizens. The numerous former students now successfully employed as performers or teachers speak for the realization of this purpose. To its continued realization, the faculty and administration are whole-heartedly devoted.

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

Application for admission must be made on official Conservatory forms and submitted well in advance of the intended entrance date. All applicants are considered without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin. A statement of medical eligibility must be completed on the form provided. Dance applicants must submit a full-length photo in dance rehearsal wear. The applicant should also have a transcript of his high school record and three letters of recommendation sent to the Admissions Office. as well as the scores of at least one national college-entrance examination. These examinations are administered at secondary schools, or by direct arrangement with:

The College Entrance Examination Board
Eastern Office: Box 592. Princeton, New Jersey
Western Office: Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701

The American College Testing Program
P. O. Box 168
Iowa City, Iowa

For admission to a Degree Program, preparatory study should total a minimum of sixteen entrance units, distributed as follows:

English (4 years' study)	4 units
Foreign Language	2
Higher Mathematics	1
Social Sciences	1
Laboratory Science	1
*Fixed Electives	4
Free Electives	3
	16

*These four units must be earned in Langauge, Mathematics, Science or Social Science.

Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

For admission to the Diploma Program, the academic requirements are not specific; however, a high school education or its equivalent is required.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

MUSIC

For acceptance to an applied music major course, an applicant must give evidence, by audition, of his ability to pursue Conservatory level work. Applicants for the Music Education course must audition in their applied music concentrate. Voice and instrumental applied music majors are assigned two half-hour private lessons weekly; concentrates and minors, one-half hour weekly. Concentrates may elect additional instruction at extra cost.

Proficiency levels for acceptance to Applied Music courses follow:

Piano Major. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation and be able to play scales at a moderate tempo. He should know chords and arpeggios in all keys, and be able to sight-read early-grade music. His repertory should have reached the level of Czerny's Etudes, Opus 299, Bach's Two- and Three-Part Inventions, Haydn's Sonata in C Major, and Beethoven's Bagatelles, Opus 33.

Organ Major. An applicant should be able to meet the requirements for entering Freshmen in Piano, or demonstrate a comparable advancement in technique and repertory on the Organ.

Voice Major. An applicant should be able to sing simple art songs with true intonation and adequate tone quality. Some ability to play the piano is highly desirable.

String Major. An applicant should be able to play all major and minor scales, one solo, and one or more movements from a sonata or student concerto, demonstrating a technical grounding in bowing, intonation, and musicianship.

Harp Major. An applicant should have reasonable facility in all scales and arpeggios for the instrument and present at least one solo piece of moderate difficulty.

Wind Major. An applicant should be able to play the scales through four sharps and four flats at a moderate tempo, and show a basic development of embouchure and articulation. He should present one or more solos, demonstrating musicianship by adequate tone quality and meaningful phrasing.

Percussion Major. An applicant should perform a solo on at least one instrument with precision, musicianship, and moderate skill. He should have had previous ensemble experience in an orchestra or band.

Music Education Major.
Composition Major. Applicants to these programs must demonstrate moderate proficiency on at least one instrument. Ability to play the piano is highly desirable.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

DRAMA

Applicants in Drama must present an audition which consists of:

1. One selection from classic repertoire, i.e. Greek, Elizabethan, Restoration, or 18th Century.
2. Two selections from contemporary plays, one comedy and one serious.

Each selection shall be at least one minute and not over three minutes in duration. Scenes should be memorized and prepared without direction or coaching from anyone. Several speeches by one character may be blended, omitting other characters to make a scene of sufficient length, or both parts of a two character scene may be read, or another person may assist by reading the other parts.

Applicants for the Drama Major-Musical Theatre Minor, in addition to the above, must be prepared to sing two contemporary show tunes.

1. A ballad or love song of sustained tone quality.
2. A light rhythmic song.

N. B. The applicant must bring his own sheet music. An accompanist will be provided.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

DANCE

Although no audition is required of applicants in Dance, evidence of the quality and extent of dance training and background must be presented through letters of reference and recommendations.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Transfer students applying for advanced standing should include a transcript of work accomplished at their former school, together with its recent catalog. Transfer credit in Applied Music, Music Theory, Applied Drama, and Applied Dance, is determined by examination, on entrance to the Conservatory. Transfer policies and length of residency requirements will be determined by the Board of Admissions or the Graduate Committee. This determination will normally be made during the first semester of residency.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Private instruction is available for Special Students who may wish to pursue such studies in one or more subjects during the day or early evening hours.

SUMMER INSTRUCTION

Credit may be earned on both the undergraduate and graduate levels in applied music, theory, composition, and music education during the Summer Session. Credit may also be earned on the undergraduate level in Dance and Drama courses. For details, write for the Special Summer Bulletin.

TUITION POLICY

All tuition charges including room and board, if applicable, must be paid on or before the date of registration.

For students and parents desiring to pay education expenses in monthly installments, a deferred payment program is available through EDUCATION FUNDS, Inc., a nation wide organization specializing in education financing. For detailed information concerning this deferred payment plan write to the Dean of the Conservatory.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

A medical insurance plan is provided through BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD at a nominal annual fee. Students not covered by any other form of medical insurance are advised to enroll in this plan. Its benefits greatly assist in the event of serious illness or other emergency.

EXAMINATIONS

SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS. All students following the degree or diploma programs are required to take an examination in each of their courses at the end of each semester.

APPLIED MUSIC EXAMINATIONS. All students seeking credit in applied music must perform before a faculty jury at the end of each semester. Students with an unsatisfactory attendance record will not be admitted to this audition, and will be graded 'failure'. Attendance and satisfactory performance in Recital Class is required of all applied music majors and concentrates.

GRADING SYSTEM. A, excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, passing; E, failure; W, withdrew from course.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Each candidate for the Bachelor of Music Degree must complete the prescribed course of study in his program with satisfactory grades. A student receiving grades below C in more than 12 credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

Applied Music Majors must have studied a comprehensive repertoire of literature in their chosen field and give solo recitals in the junior and senior years. Outstanding soloists may audition for performances with the orchestra or other instrumental combinations.

Music Education Majors must have studied representative literature in their applied concentrate and give a public recital in their senior year. This recital must be performed from memory by voice and piano concentrates. Other instrumental concentrates must perform at least one major work or equivalent from memory.

Composition Majors must give evidence by examination that they have acquired proficiency on their applied concentrate and must present for approval a folio of original compositions (neatly written in ink) as follows:

1. not less than five works in smaller forms — piano pieces, songs and/or solos for orchestral instruments;
2. a composition in fugal form for string quartet, woodwind or brass ensemble;
3. an example of sonata-form for piano or for ensemble combination;
4. a composition of symphonic proportions or a work for chorus and orchestra (minimum duration 15 minutes). Two copies of this final work must be appropriately bound and presented to the Conservatory Library two weeks before graduation.

Dance and Drama candidates for the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree must provide evidence of successful completion of the prescribed curriculum. A student receiving grades below "C" in more than twelve credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships afford assistance for a limited number of students who show evidence of exceptional ability and financial need. Scholarships awarded to students are renewable upon application.

The Sevcik Scholarship. A fund established for the aid of deserving violin students by the distinguished violin pedagogue, Professor Ottakar Sevcik, during his visit to America (1931-32) as guest teacher.

Blanche B. Parker Fund. The income of a bequest under the will of the late Blanche B. Parker to be used for the assistance of one or more women students of voice.

Alumni Association Scholarships. A special fund established by the Alumni Association.

Bertha T. Otis Scholarship. The income from a fund established by the late Bertha T. Otis.

Faculty Scholarships. Scholarships sponsored by faculty members are available to students of composition, voice, organ, pianoforte, orchestral instruments, dance, and drama.

Conservatory Scholarship Fund. A fund made possible by individual contributions and by proceeds from various benefit recitals and activities.

Student Government Scholarship. A fund established by the Student Government Organization of The Conservatory to aid deserving students.

Francis Findlay Memorial Scholarship Fund. A fund established by family and friends, in memory of Mr. Francis Findlay (1894-1967), former chairman of the department of Music Education and Graduate Study.

AWARDS. The following medals are awarded annually to the two full-time students (12 or more hours) who have maintained the highest averages for the school-year: for highest honors, the ARTHUR B. WHITNEY MEDAL; for second highest honors, the ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEDAL.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES

Throughout the academic year, the Conservatory maintains a full schedule of public recitals, concerts, and ensemble programs. In addition, the Drama and Dance Departments present a variety of major productions and workshop performances. Faculty and guest artists appear frequently throughout the year. Regular attendance at these concerts and participation by qualified students is considered a vital part of the education at the Conservatory.

LIBRARY

The Albert Alphin Library houses a select collection of books and references in Music, Drama, Dance, and the Humanities, together with a representative collection of musical scores. The Recordings Section contains an extensive selection of music in all media and forms, which may be heard on modern listening equipment. Recent additions to the library include contributions from the collections of Francis Findlay, Katherine Hooper, Albert Mirovitch, and Jan Veen.

RESIDENCE

The Conservatory maintains women's residence near its classroom buildings, facing The Fenway. Each of these houses is supervised by its own director, and is notable for its home-like atmosphere and friendly cooperation. All women students not living at home are required to live in the dormitories. Students reaching their twenty-first birthday by October first may be excused from this regulation. Meals are served in the Conservatory dining room where two meals are provided daily. A la carte lunches are available week days at nominal rates.

Room and board reservation should be made as soon as a student is notified of her acceptance for admission. This reservation is secured by an advance deposit of $50, which is applicable to the student's account, and not refundable. In all cases, this reservation is held as binding for the school year, and may not be broken except for an emergency which, in the judgement of the Administration, necessitates a student's withdrawal from school.

Men students will be given assistance in locating suitable accommodations near the Conservatory.

DIPLOMA COURSES

The Diploma Course is designed for the student whose talent and interest may warrant intensive training in his major field and basic related subjects. The program parallels the degree curriculum, minus certain academics, and is intended to prepare the student as a performer and for private teaching. Graduation from high school, or equivalent, is required for admission. Applied music majors are required to give a recital in the junior and senior years.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

GRADUATE COMMITTEE

William A. Seymour, Chairman

Rosamond Brenner James A. Wiltshire Rouben Gregorian

The Dean, Ex Officio

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC offers courses leading to the Master of Music degree in the fields of Applied Music (instrumental and vocal), Composition and Music Education. The Graduate School Program is open to those who hold the Bachelor of Music degree or other equivalent baccalaureate degree with a major in music from a school of recognized standing. Records of undergraduate studies presented for entrance must represent work equivalent in quality and content to that prescribed for similar degrees at the Boston Conservatory.

REQUIREMENTS: The minimum requirement for the master's degree is the completion of thirty-two semester hours of a prescribed course, twenty-six hours of which must be earned in residence. A grade of B or better must be obtained in all subjects of the course. No applicant can be assured that he may fulfill the requirements in one acadmic year, as much depends upon the undergraduate preparation, deficiencies (if any) to be removed, and the ability of the individual student. In most instances it takes a student two academic years to complete the work. All undergraduate prerequisite requirements in the major field must be made up without credit. A change of major will usually involve the makeup of prerequisites. All graduate programs, including elective subjects and changes of program, must be approved by the Graduate Committee.

Each candidate for the degree with a major in applied music will be required to give a full length public recital. The program for this recital must be previewed before a faculty Jury for approval before the date of the public performance will be announced.

A candidate for the degree with a major in Composition or Music Education is required to prepare a thesis. The thesis for a composition major will be one of the following:

(a) An original composition scored for full orchestra and requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance (this composition may be for chorus, solo voice or an instrument with orchestral accompaniment.)

(b) An original composition for chamber orchestra requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance.

(c) An original orchestral composition scored for full orchestra requiring not less than ten minutes in performance, and a shorter work for chorus or an instrumental combination requiring not less than five minutes in performance.

Two bound scores must be presented to the Conservatory Library at least two weeks before the date of graduation.

The Music Education major must have the subject of his thesis approved by the Graduate Committee. Preparation of the thesis will be under the guidance of a faculty advisor. A complete typewritten copy of the thesis must be submitted for correction and approval at least six weeks prior to the date of intended graduation. After approval, two copies must be typed, bound, and presented to the Conservatory Library.

ADMISSION: An applicant to the Graduate School must comply with the following:

(a) File an application, on a form provided by the Conservatory, with the Chairman of the Graduate Committee at least two months prior to the time of intended matriculation. The application must be accompanied by a fee of $20.00.

(b) Submit transcript(s) of all work completed for the undergraduate degree, and catalogue(s) describing course content.

(c) Submit scores of the Graduate Record Examination. These examinations are administered throughout the year. Information may be obtained from:

Educational Testing Service
Princeton, New Jersey 08540
(or)
1947 Center Street
Berkeley, California 94704

(d) Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

All applicants will be interviewed and given auditions by members of the Graduate Committee, and will be required to take written placement examinations in Theory, Harmony, and Music History. Following the auditions and examinations, the applicant will be advised as to the evaluation of his undergraduate credits. Students who have deficiencies for admission will be given provisional graduate standing until such time as the undergraduate deficiencies have been removed. Such deficiencies must be removed at least one semester before completion of the graduate degree program.

Full time graduate students will be required to participate in the rehearsals and performances of the Chorus, Orchestra, or Band.

DESCRIPTION OF STUDIES

THEORY AND SOLFÈGE

THEORY AND SOLFÈGE 1-2. Review of the basic fundamentals of music; notation, clefs, scales, tonality, intervals, chords, ornamentation, terminology. Rhythmic articulation and sight-singing in treble and bass clefs. Rhythmic and melodic dictation.
Two hours weekly; credit, one and one-half hours each semester.

THEORY AND SOLFÈGE 3-4. Advanced studies in rhythmic singing, and sight-singing in alto and tenor clefs; harmonic dictation, dictation in two, three, and four parts, and in changing meter.
Two hours weekly; credit, one and one-half hours each semester.

THEORY AND SOLFÈGE 105-106. An advanced course in sight-singing in all clefs; harmonic dictation, and transposition. Pre-requisite: Theory and Solfège 3-4, or equivalent.
Private Instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY

HARMONY 1-2. Preliminary definitions; triads of the major and minor diatonic scales and their inversions; principles of chord progression; seventh and ninth chords and their inversions; harmonization of given basses and melodies; modulation to related keys; keyboard harmony including cadence formulas in all keys.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY 3-4. Chromatically altered chords; suspension and other non-harmonic tones; modulation to remote keys; exercises in vocal and instrumental styles; the writing of accompaniments in free style; analysis of Bach chorales and other literature; keyboard harmonization of basses and melodies.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY 5-6. An advanced course primarily for composition majors. Special study of the application of modern harmonic technique. Polytonality, atonality, pandiatonicism, and other devices pertinent to the contemporary idiom.
Credit, one hour each semester.

COUNTERPOINT

COUNTERPOINT 1-2. Species counterpoint in two parts; canon, double counterpoint; inventions in two parts.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 3-4. Free counterpoint in three and four parts; canon and fugue.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 5-6. Advanced study in fugue, canon, passacaglia; application of contrapuntal forms to contemporary music.
Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 107-108. Double and triple counterpoint; contemporary techniques; linear counterpoint; analysis of representative works.
Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

FORM AND ANALYSIS

Form and Analysis 1-2. Underlying principles of chord structure and harmonic rhythm as they affect form and content; non-harmonic and contrapuntal devices. In the first semester, quartets and piano literature will be stressed, and in the second semester, representative scores are studied to illustrate various approaches to form, texture, and instrumentation, and their bearing on performance.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Form and Analysis 103-104. An advanced course for graduate students, comprising a detailed examination of scores in several media, for better understanding of individual composers' styles, and the main direction of musical development. The first semester comprises the later evolution of chromatic harmony to early Schoenberg, and the second explores other 20th century techniques of tonal organization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

ARRANGING

Arranging 1-2. (Music Education 13-14). Contemporary techniques in professional arranging: melodic analysis, harmonization of melody, close and open voicing, instrumentation, idiomatic harmonic progressions, characteristics of sectional versus ensemble arranging.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Arranging 3-4. Application of fundamentals to varied instrumental combinations, from four piece to fifteen piece ensembles.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Arranging 105-106. (Pre-requisite; Arranging or Instrumentation 1, 2). Advanced arranging techniques.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION

Instrumentation 1-2. A study of the nature of the various orchestral instruments. Scoring for vocal ensembles, band and orchestral combinations.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Instrumentation 3-4. Scoring for full orchestra and/or band, and for various instrumental combinations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Instrumentation 105-106. A continuation of Instrumentation 3-4, with emphasis on orchestration for the symphony orchestra. Analysis of the techniques employed by composers of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION

Composition 1-2. Basic principles of composition. Practical writing in the smaller forms for piano and selected instrumental combinations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 3-4. Expansion of instrumental techniques. Composition for voice and chorus with particular attention to the setting of texts and idiomatic vocal and choral practices.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 5, 6. Primarily instrumental. Sonatas for solo instrument and piano or chamber combinations. Special attention is given to the mastery of technique.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 7, 8. Intensive study in the larger forms: Concerto, sonata, symphony, and string quartet. Analysis of representative works in these forms.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 109-110. Emphasis on New Music. Pointillistic textures, fragmented melodic textures, complexes, construction and use of harmonic aggregates. Ways of achieving form and structure arithmetically. Texture-types and their inter-relationships. New rhythmic technique. Guided experimental composition.

Private, one hour weekly; credit, five hours each semester.

Composition 111. Seminar in Exploratory Composition. Creative projects utilizing new notational and performance techniques. Aleatoric and mechanistic principles applied to structure and form. Related score analysis. (Open to composition majors and other graduate students by consent of the instructor).

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

MUSIC HISTORY and LITERATURE

Music History and Literature 1-2. A survey course, designed to give the student a background in musical style from primitive to modern times. Weekly listening sessions supplement the class work.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Music History and Literature 3-4. An examination of representative compositions from the Middle Ages to the present, emphasizing technical details of individual styles and their relationship to the epoch in which they occur.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Music History and Literature 105. A detailed examination of music of the Baroque period, consisting of an account of the emergence of forms and styles, instrumentation, performance practice, and changes in the theoretical basis of composition.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

Music History and Literature 106. An examination of the Classical period, stressing the emergence of the symphony and sonata, changes in harmony, forms, and orchestration. Particular attention will be given to the music of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

Music History and Literature 107. An examination of the music in the Romantic era, emphasizing the changes in style that took place in the form, rhythm, melody, harmony, and orchestration. Special attention will be given to the music of Beethoven (later works), Berlioz, Brahms, Verdi, Wagner, and Mahler.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

Music History and Literature 108. History of 20th century music with emphasis on the path leading from early atonality to the New Music of today. Recent electronic, instrumental music and theoretical writings by Stockhausen, Boulez, Berio and others. Guided score analysis. Consideration of related sociological, philosophic and aesthetic questions. Comparison of various schools of thought.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

Piano Literature 1-2. A survey of masterworks for the piano through live and recorded performances, stressing editions, composers' intentions, and interpretation. May be re-elected for credit.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Vocal Literature 1-2. Reading and study of representative literature of the English, Italian, French and German masters of all periods.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

CHURCH MUSIC

Church Music 1-2. Choir Training: Methods of organization; rehearsal techniques; choral repertory; program building; various rituals, chant; pronunciation of church Latin.
Credit, two hours each semester.

Church Music 103-104. A study of the history of sacred music; Gregorian chant; Anglican chant; notation.
Credit, two hours each semester.

ORATORIO

Oratorio 1-2. A study of the standard oratorios, cantatas, and masses with emphasis on reading, analysis, and interpretation.
One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Oratorio 103-104. A comprehensive study of the more significant oratorios and related choral works from the 16th century to the present.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COACHING and DICTION

A course for voice students devoted to the preparation of representative art song literature and/or operatic roles for public performance. Special emphasis is given to musical interpretation and diction in the respective languages.
Private instruction; credit two hours each semester.

OPERA WORKSHOP

Opera Workshop 1-2. Coordination of action with music; application of acting techniques to arias and ensembles; fundamentals of gesture and movement and character analysis of roles. Frequent public presentations.
Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Opera Workshop 3-4. Thorough study of separate scenes and complete acts from both classical and modern operas. Qualified students may participate in the Conservatory's annual opera productions.
Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Opera Workshop 105-106. A continuation of Opera Workshop 3-4.
Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

VOICE THERAPY

Voice Therapy 1-2 (105-106, Graduate level). A thorough study of the anatomy and physiology of the larynx and respiratory organs and musculature by means of lectures, slides, and motion pictures; a study of the various pathologies involved in the throat problems curable or aided by voice-therapy. Exercises, general and specific, for handling these problems. In some cases actual patients may be brought in for purposes of demonstration before the class.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Voice Therapy 3-4 (107-108, Graduate level). The second year is devoted to clinical internship in connection with local medical institutions where students work with patients and become acquainted with all the problems, physical and psychological, encountered by the voice-therapist. This clinical experience consists of one session per week of two hours' duration, plus a symposium. All progress is noted by periodic tape-recordings of the patients' voices. (Pre-requisite: Voice Therapy 1-2).
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours each semester.

Philosophy of Education 1-2. This course traces the history of educational theory and practice over the centuries, and acquaints the student with the underlying nature, principles and objectives of education. Special attention is given to the application of psychology to education, public education in the United States, and present-day trends and issues.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours each semester.

SCIENCES

Psychology 1. General Psychology. An introduction to the scope of psychology and the nature of its methods. Focus on the individual; his perceptions, emotions, drives, and social functioning. Reaction to conflict, mental hygiene and maladjustment are discussed. Assigned readings and reports.
Three hours weekly; credit, three hours first semester.

Psychology 2. Educational Psychology. This course embraces both child and adolescent psychology, the socialization of children, the principles of learning as they affect child behavior; motivation and maturation in learning; the classroom environment and problems of the teacher at work.
Three hours weekly; credit, three hours second semester.

Kinesiology 1-2. A study of the major joints of the human body and their relationship to movement; location and action of muscles; study of the structure of organs and individual systems and their function in the whole organism.
Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

APPLIED MUSIC COURSES

Applied Music students must be confirmed as majors or concentrates no later than the end of the sophomore year. Applied music requirements and levels are determined by the private teacher and confirmed by the faculty jury.

All Applied Music majors are required to perform a public recital in the junior and senior years.

(Other Graduation Requirements, see page 10).

SECONDARY APPLIED MUSIC COURSES

Piano 1-2-3-4. Preparatory Studies designed to meet the secondary requirements of Music Education and Applied Music majors. They aim to build skills of functional piano playing; adequate technique; chordal improvisation and transposition to sight-read simple accompaniments for classroom or studio use. Normally, a student will meet this requirement in four semesters; if not, he must re-elect Piano 4.
One private lesson weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Voice Class 1-2. The fundamentals and development of breathing and tone-production through vocalises and song repertory, for prospective public school teachers and those who plan a stage career.
One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

String Class.
Woodwind Class.
Brass Class.
Percussion Class.

REGULATIONS

Students are required to comply with all school regulations and any further rules that the Conservatory may deem necessary to put into effect. Failure to obey the Conservatory regulations is considered grounds for dismissal, as is any behavior unbecoming a student of the Conservatory.

Each student must consult the official bulletin board regularly and will be held personally responsible for any notices and communications.

Private lessons missed, due to unavoidable absence, will be made up providing twenty-four hours' notice of intended absence has been given to the Conservatory office. Failure of regular course students to give proper notice of intended absence will necessitate payment of an additional fee. All lessons that are to be made up must be taken during the current semester.

Attendance at all classes is required. Absence due to illness will be excused upon receipt of a statement from a physician or other medical authority. Excessive absences will result in an automatic grade of "E" for the course.

A credit course student withdrawing from a course after mid-term will receive a grade of "E" for the subject.

All scheduled examinations must be taken in order to receive credit for the course. A charge of $5 will be made for each make-up examination resulting from an excused absence. Absence from a final exam without notification will be recorded as failing without credit.

Change of program may not be undertaken without the approval of the Dean. A student may change his major but the Administration reserves the right to veto any such proposed change, and any deficiencies or prerequisites must be made up at the student's expense.

Any member of the chorus, orchestra, band, opera class, or other ensemble group who fails to participate in a public performance when requested by the instructor in charge, must forfeit credit for the course.

Attendance at Commencement is compulsory for all graduating students. A penalty of $20 will be assessed any student who is absent for any reason, whatsoever, and such student must present himself at the Conservatory offices in person before his degree (diploma) will be released.

All business connected with the school such as the arrangement of lesson appointments, change of day or hours for appointment, payment of tuition, etc., must be transacted at the administrative offices.
